Chablis "D1840" 2020

Simonnet-Febvre is both a négociant and a grower, owning Chablis village plots, pieces Premier Cru, Mont de Milieu, and in Grand Cru, Preuses. The D1840 bottles comes from their vineyards that have a village appellation. Fresh and stone-y, it's a fantastic village wine, providing more excitement than many growers' 1er cru. A citrus buzz in the finish just amplifies its appeal. Don't miss it.

Chablis Premier Cru Mont de Milieu 2020

More elegant, befitting a 1er cru, the floral and mineral-y Mont de Milieu dances on the palate. This lovely, lacey wine is a delight to drink now with simply grilled fish.

Chablis Grand Cru Preuses 2020

Unsurprisingly for a young Grand Cru, Simonnet-Febvre's Preuses takes time to reveal itself in the glass. But when it does, look out. It explodes with a barrage of flint and stones all supported by riveting acidity. A long and luxurious finish confirms this is a great youthful Grand Cru Chablis. Give it a decade.
